

Shashi Bharati was born on 10th May 1987 at Indore (MP). Shashi states on art that “her art work is her first love and her color is her identification”. She has established herself as a freelance artist with clientele from different walks of life in india and overseas. Its over 12 years she is unleashing her creativity with deep passion. She is currently working at her independent studio in bangaloure ,india.

Shashi Bharati is one of the contemporary indian painter who render sensibility, sensuality, spirituality merged with abstract energy and infused into paintings. Her brush strokes and graphic representation are her subject's strong emotional communication of broad, bold and explosive, tender, sensitive and gentle, spontaneous, passionate, vital and intense.

Shashi's art compels and seduces viewer emotions with her subject matter and gives an experience of inspiring or profound and always thought provoking, Her paintings reflect the spirit and soul of her subjects creating intimacy on personal awareness of her long research . The stimulating graphics along with appealing abstract energy of her paintings makes Shashi's art, a diversified style highly sought after globally.