

Artist Statement

My recent works are attempts of a critical engagement with changing facets of human relations and sensibilities. The images are caught between complex situations and dilemmas of reality. My figuration portrays a fictitious world by an interpretation of everyday reality and nurtures the fragile feelings of human emotions to construct meaningful imagery from the lived reality. The significant issues associated with urban reality like identity, migration, adaptability, and transformation are part of this existence.

V.G.Venugopal