

At heart of his subjects, Fawad paints are the city he grew up Hyderabad. The beautiful cityscapes of lesser-known parts of Hyderabad make his paintings distinctive. The rich visual vocabulary gives them an individualistic touch. He balances the traditional and contemporary elements in his art with panache. Experimenting with different mediums and textures and modern techniques in art and printmaking makes his work larger than life. What makes his paintings so alive is that each of them tells a story