“The Society of Contemporary Artists are the oldest active artists group in India. Established in 1960 with the aim of gaining aesthetic autonomy, the society members became true bearers of the idea of regional modernism in independent India.

The founding members included Shyamal Dutta Ray, Sanat Kar, Nikhil Biswas, Arun Bose, Sukanto Bose, Anil Baran Saha, Sailen Mitra & Sunil Das. Soon after, accomplished practitioners like Bikash Bhattacharya, Ganesh Pyne, Somnath Hore, Ajit Chakraborty, Amitabha Banerjee, Suhas Roy, Dharmanarayan Dasgupta, Ganesh Haloi, Manu Parekh, Niranjana Pradhan and Lalu Prasad Shaw joined the league among others.

Today, while celebrating their 65th anniversary, the present members are upholding the legacy and continue to create critical dialogues”
