

AVIJIT ROY

Artist Statement

I am working with power and strength, which I express through the form of a bull. The bull represents raw energy, brutal strength, and moving power, qualities that deeply resonate with me. Through this form, I channel and express my inner emotions and sensations.

For me, the bull is not just an animal—it is an icon, a symbolic vessel through which I communicate my inner world. It embodies many layers of meaning and becomes a medium for expressing everything I feel within.
